

No Remnant Sale, BUT A Big Money Saving Sale!

We throw out no "bites" in the way of remnant sales, but we actually do sell goods cheaper than any house in town. We have built up a big trade by fair dealing, courteous treatment and low prices, and will continue to get trade and hold it in the same way.

Everything in the house, consisting of Dry Goods, Boots and Shoes, Hats and Caps, Gents' Furnishing Goods, Notions, Stationery, Jewelry, etc., will go at lower prices, considering quality of goods, than other houses will make you. We sell an extra fine ladies' shoe at $1 that others ask $1.25 for. We have men's shoes as low as 90c per pair. Elegant prints, newest patterns, at 3c, 4c and 5c a yard. Handsome gingham at 4c per yard. Better gingham for 7c per yard.

This is for Red Hot Business, and We Mean It.

We haven't time to quote prices on everything, but will make sweeping reductions on everything in our stock.

We mean business in this sale and you should by all means secure some of the bargains which we will offer.

We do not misrepresent anything. Our aim is to please and by fair dealing, courteous treatment and low prices we will have your trade. See if we don't.

McELHINEY & SON.

The citizens of Jintown, I. T., have petitioned the stockholders of the company asking that the manager, Jim Newman, be removed. They state in their petition that he does not reside in the city; that he does not do his trading in the town, and that he has been a drawback to the interests of Jintown since the very first. The citizens are a progressive class of people and are going to make a city in opposition to Mr. Newman. We are informed that the same rule will kick Miami next week or by the 11th of June.

McCammon & Co.

Don't give their goods away, but they have just bought a big invoice of GROCERIES from John A. Tolman, Chicago. They paid cash for them, got the benefit of discounts, consequently can and will sell as cheap as those who almost give goods away. Five-cent purchases are as cheap as five-dollar ones in proportion. Rich and poor, high and low, all served alike.

CALL IN AND BE CONVINCED.

COMMENCEMENT.
The ninth annual commencement exercises of the Baxter Springs public schools were held at the Baldwin opera house on Friday and Saturday evenings of last week.
On Friday evening the colored graduating class entertained a large and appreciative audience. The graduates were Bessie Cole and Mildred Powell and they acquitted themselves with great credit. Florence Wheaton, H. C. Davis, Percy Cole, Anna McClarne and Olivia Powell each had a part in the exercises and they did remarkably well. Prof. Ruffner in a neat and appropriate speech presented the graduates with their diplomas.

On Saturday evening the white department of the high school entertained an unusually large audience. Walter Scott was the only graduate in the class of '95, and his oration on "Evolution of Ideas" was a masterpiece.

Miss Irene Person delivered a recitation on "An Order for a Picture" which was well received, after which Frank Gibbons, in a masterly manner, delivered an oration on the "Growth of the Great West."

Miss Jessie Cooper then favored the audience with a recitation entitled "The Legend of Bergen."

Miss Madge Lyman's essay entitled "A Few Thoughts on Art" showed careful preparation, and after music by the orchestra, Prof. C. S. Bowman of the Baxter Springs Normal and Business College delivered an address.

Then came the presentation of the diploma by Prof. Ruffner and the benediction by Rev. J. A. Young.

THE RIVER STREET HILL.

Improvements which have been going on at the hill on East River street are now completed, and as soon as that portion of the earth receives a good soaking rain the hill will be in first class condition. The hill has been cut down so that the grade is now the same as that of the springs park hill. The River street hill should have been cut down long ago, and we are pleased to know that people living east of the river can now come to Baxter to do their trading without having so much hill to climb. Good roads help the trade of a town and money spent on them is money wisely invested.

Ed. Hodgkins is shipping hay this week.

H. W. Harley of Peoria was in town Tuesday on business.

S. H. Smith had a new roof put on his residence on Main street this week.

T. E. Meeds is having an addition built to his residence on Chouteau avenue.
